US INDICTMENTS AGAINST ONLINE POKER COMPANIES

(MOHAWK TERRITORY OF KAHNAWAKE – April 19, 2011) – The Kahnawake Gaming Commission (“KGC”) is reviewing the indictments issued on April 15, 2011 by the Southern District of New York against three online poker companies, one of which (Absolute Poker) holds its primary gaming licence in Kahnawake.

The KGC's principal concern is that players are not adversely affected by the actions taken by US authorities. The KGC is presently engaged in discussions with its licensee concerning the status of player accounts.

Upon completion of its review, the KGC will determine what steps may be required and will issue a further statement at that time.
