

May 10, 2010

Kahnawake Gaming Commission and Alderney Gambling Control Commission sign Memorandum of Understanding

The Kahnawake Gaming Commission (“KGC”) and the Alderney Gambling Control Commission (“AGCC”) confirm that they have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) which will provide an efficient and reasonable channel for the exchange of information and material with respect to past, existing and prospective licensees for the purpose of ensuring effective regulation between both jurisdictions. The KGC and AGCC have agreed that the specific content of the MOU will remain confidential.

For further information contact:

Murray Marshall
General Counsel
Kahnawake Gaming Commission
murray.marshall@gamingcommission.ca