CASINO LATINAMERICANO LIMITED SUSPENDED

(MOHAWK TERRITORY OF KAHNAWAKE – October 14, 2011) – The Kahnawake Gaming Commission (the “Commission”) issued to Casino Latinamericano Limited (“Casino Latinamericano”), a Notice of Immediate Suspension. The suspension of Casino Latinamericano was effective on October 11, 2011.

As a result of this suspension, Casino Latinamericano is not permitted to conduct interactive gaming based in and offered from within the Territory, including interactive gaming involving players situated both within and outside the Territory, in accordance with the Regulations Concerning Interactive Gaming.

The Commission has also issued to Casino Latinamericano a Show Cause Notice giving Casino Latinamericano thirty (30) days to show cause as to why its Client Provider Authorization (“CPA”) should not be revoked.

The Commission’s decision to suspend the CPA of Casino Latinamericano was a result of their failure to pay fees that it is required to pay under the Regulations, which was clearly conveyed to the operator.

The Commission will post further updates as this matter develops.
